Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

An Associate is a layperson who has made a commitment to the mission of a religious community. In a study undertaken in 2016 by the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate, two-thirds of religious institutes reported having an Associates program. In that year, there were 56,000 Associates in the USA and Canada, and 90% of them were women, with 71% of Associates being over 60 years of age. Like vowed religious, laypeople who become Associates speak of being called to their role and having an inner spirituality that the programs allow to flourish. The charism of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Canada does not belong to any one congregation, but to the world. Both Associates and women religious are called to the same mission and charism, yet Associates and women religious are distinctly different. Where Sisters hold religious vocations with life in common to the mission and the charism through perpetual vows, Associates hold individual vocations with life to the mission and the charism and yearn for a deeper spiritual commitment, but individuals may be unable or unwilling to take perpetual vows. Associate requirements vary by community. Over time, there has been a shift in the leadership of Associate programs from vowed religious to lay directors. Some Associates have taken over ministries formerly run by the religious community.

On July 9th, 1987, the Congregation of St. Joseph approved the movement towards having an Associates Program complete with a candidate process and formal training process. The program began on April 4th, 1989, in London, Ontario, Canada. The Associates Program was originally founded by Sister Doreen Kraemer and later administered by Sister Janet Zadorsky. As of April 2017, administration of the program was taken over by two Lay Mentors, Mary Shamley and Ann Baker.

Series: F01-SF17--S001 - Directories and Lists

Title: Directories and Lists

Reference code: F01-SF17--S001

Date: 1989-2014 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

This series contains various directories and Associate lists. The directories are small booklets arranged in chronological order which contain the name, address, and phone numbers of all Associates from the years 1992-2007. These booklets are internally organized by geographical group within southwestern Ontario. There are alphabetical lists of Associates indicating the year they became Associates, and which city they are Associated with. Notably, there are three albums which are larger booklets that contain photographs of members, divided by city. There are agreements from 1995-2012 between the Associates and their directors but these are for Associates who have subsequently withdrawn from the program. There is also correspondence indicating the withdrawal of two Associates from Yellowknife, NWT.

Series: F01-SF17--S002 - Newsletters

Title: Newsletters

Reference code: F01-SF17--S002

Date: 1991-2016 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

This series contains volumes 1-50 of the newsletter “Bridging” spanning from 1991-2016 and produced by the Congregation’s Associate Core Team (ACT) members. Two volumes were published each year, usually in the winter and summer, but sometimes in the fall and spring. This newsletter was intended to inform people about the Associate relationship in the Congregation and to keep the Associates up to date with news about events. Each newsletter has its own theme, such as, service, relationship with the Divine, and longing for belonging. Common sections throughout the newsletters are poems, “mark your calendar” sections, suggestions for readings, news about events, fundraisers, and retreats, introduction of new members, and updates from various Associate communities. These communities include Maidstone, St. Thomas, Windsor, Chatham, Kingsville, Woodstock, Simcoe, London, Grand Bend, and Sarnia. Also included is a coloured drawing of a bridge that is crossing a small creek with trees and other flora surrounding it that was made for the newsletter.

The Charism Connection is the ceremony that involves laypeople taking vows to be guided by the charism of the Sisters by which they become Associates. There is a commitment ritual in which the incoming Associates pledge to pray and offer love, commit to continual spiritual growth through personal prayer, and join the congregation's mission of working to achieve unity of neighbour with neighbour and neighbour with God. In return, the Sisters pledge to accept and welcome the Associates, offering them prayers, and encouraging them in spirit. Ceremonial materials such as invitations, agendas, and correspondence regarding commitment are included within this subseries. This subseries also features a questionnaire for potential Associates that determine the readiness for the commitment ceremony and a copy of the mutual agreement for the Associate's relationship between the potential Associates and the Sisters. There is also sheet music of hymns that were sung during the Charism Connection ceremonies. The commitment ceremonies took place in both Windsor and London, Ontario.

Reference code: F01-SF17--S007

Date: 1982-2017 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

This series consists of booklets, minutes, correspondence, and forms that relate to managing the Associates program. There are three booklets in this series. The first booklet includes the roles and responsibilities of Sisters and the congregation in implementing the Associates program. The second booklet includes information on the process of becoming an Associate, and the roles and responsibilities. Lastly, the third booklet highlights the importance of mutuality and collaboration between Sisters and Associates in relation to the mission of charism. There are also correspondence and procedures from Sister Virginia Varley to the Sisters with regards to establishing the Associates program in 1986. Additionally, there are meeting minutes of coordinators of the Associates program, as well as, suggested guidelines for co-membership. The series also includes guidelines on Associate demise (related to leaving the program), charism renewal forms, Charism Connection ceremony mutual agreements, and various correspondence related to the corporate stance of Associates, including letters sent to Parliament officials.

Series: F01-SF17--S008 - Peru Program

Title: Peru Program

Reference code: F01-SF17--S008

Date: 1987-2010 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

This series consists of mostly booklets, correspondence, and two photographs related to the Associates program in Peru. Canadian Associates worked in collaboration with the Associates in Peru to live out the charism through charity work, seeking solutions to environmental, economic, political, social, and spiritual challenges. Specifically, the series includes a document called CSJ Associates in Peru – Towards a Future Together. This document provides an overview of the proposed program in Peru, including information on how the program will be implemented. The program took place in two areas in Peru, called Zana and Chincha Alta. The Sisters from London were assigned to Zana, while Sisters from Pembroke were assigned to Chincha Alta. There is also correspondence between Sr. Janet Zadorsky and Sr. Doreen Kraemer with regards to the expenses Associated with the meeting between Chincha Alta and Zana Associates. The series also includes crafts, program booklets including prayers, and other letters. Finally, the series includes a manual and statutes from 2009.

Series: F01-SF17--S010 - FederationTitle: FederationReference code: F01-SF17--S010Date: 1991-2017 (date of creation)Scope and content:

This series consists of correspondence and reports relating to the Federation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Canada, an umbrella organization for the Sisters of St. Joseph congregations in Canada. The Federation's mission is to support each congregation in living out the charism of active and inclusive love and collaborating globally with other congregations of the Sisters of St. Joseph. The Federation has an Associates/Companions committee that supports and provides a communications network for Associate directors in the three Canadian congregations.

This series contains surveys, survey notes, reports, correspondence, pamphlets and promotional materials, and news clippings. The correspondence includes significant contributions from Sr. Janet Zadorsky who administered the Associates Program after Sr. Doreen Kraemer, and along with reports, focus on meetings and committee members of the Federation. Also included are pamphlets and promotional materials pertaining to events the Federation sponsored. There is a Sudbury region report details the activities of a Federation conference held in Sudbury, Ontario, in May 2017. Finally, there is a survey and summary of the results. The survey was from the Federation to Associate group leaders aiming to collect information on Associate directors to better plan Federation programs and facilitate connection between directors.

Series: F01-SF17--S011 - Leadership

Title: Leadership

Reference code: F01-SF17--S011

Date: 2000-2018 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

This series primarily comprises correspondence, presentations, conference and retreat outlines, meeting minutes, membership information policies, lists of Associates, prayers, and mentorship information.

Agrégées are lay people who commit themselves to an active role with the spirituality of the charism and mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph. They make a promise to abide by rules and responsibilities of membership in a non-canonical capacity. The Agrégée is a status in between that of vowed members and Associates and they commit to practicing a discerning life that is open and responsive to the movement of the spirit; commit to the spirit of poverty, chastity, and obedience according to their personal situation; participate in congregational meetings; make a financial investment in the community according to their personal situation; attend regular retreats; and attend to her spiritual life. There are still many unknowns about the program; it is an organic, evolving model. This series contains information on the Agrégées program, including the constitution for canonical and non-canonical members comparing the two roles, a history of how the Agrégées program came about, and an interview with two Sisters from 2011 regarding the program.

Other materials in this series include information about mentorship Animators. The Animators are senior Associates who have been committed Associates for at least three years. Included in this series are administrative materials detailing the roles and responsibilities of Animators, and how to select and endorse Animator and Associate Animator candidates. Also included are lists of nominees for these positions, and the final lists of the chosen Animator and Associate Animators.

This series also includes both Congregational leadership and Associate leadership correspondence and minutes of Leadership Team conference calls.

Mentors assist the London Site Associate community by supporting Animators and Core Team Members as they fulfill their leadership responsibilities. Also included in this series are the Mentor Evolution Circle meeting minutes and information about the roles and responsibilities of Mentors.
