Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Christine Lockett earned her Honours BA in Art History from the University of Leicester, England in 1974, and her Master of Museum Studies from the University of Toronto in 1988. She began working at the Royal Ontario Museum in 1978 as an assistant editor in the Publications department. Over the next several years she worked in Interpretive Planning and Exhibit Design Services. In 1991 she left the ROM for the Legislative Assembly. In 1993 she returned to the ROM to take up the position of Manager of the Exhibitions Department. Over the subsequent years she led Exhibit Planning, first as Director, then Senior Director and finally as Assistant Vice President of Exhibit Planning and Community Programs. Christine Lockett left the ROM as of April 1, 2010.
